You know that, Rippy, and yet you stubbornly hold fast to your dream. You need to understand that impossible things are -- well . . . impossible! No hare has ever skied, but Rippy, an energetic twelve-year-old, is determined to do just that. Strangely, he befriends the school bully, Orwill, after saving his life. Their friendship teaches them valuable life lessons and sets the stage to solving the mystery behind Rippy's dream. Beyond all odds, Rippy reaches deep from within and realizes much more than just his dream. Emotional events and an unforgettable conclusion changes Orwill, Rippy -- and his mother -- forever. To Dream the Impossible received Honorable Mention at the New York Book Festival.
