In the period covered by this report we have improved our system for examining and accrediting high schools to the University. This is a system by means of which we are able to make some suggestions looking to the improvement of the high schools of the State, and at the same time provide a means by which the graduates of the approved schools may enter the University without examination. The work of passing upon the courses of study and the quality of the teaching in the high schools is under the supervision of a Faculty Committee, but in a very large measure it is actually performed by an high school visitor. This visitor inspects all schools upon our accredited list, and such others as may desire a place upon the list, investigates the courses of study offered, the library and scientific equipment provided, and the methods of instruction, and if all are found to be adequate to the requirements of the University he reports these facts and recommends that the school have a place upon the accredited list of the University. When approved by the Faculty this action admits graduates to the University without examination. It is a means by...
