Not illustrated. 1913 Excerpt: .as the kitchen and dining rooms for the house staff and employees. The plans also provide for complete hydrotherapeutic and X-ray departments. Two roof wards and thirteen additional balconies for the medical pavilions, A and B, were begun in November, and will furnish means for giving open-air treatment to all the patients in these pavilions. Plans and specifications have been prepared by the architects for pavilions F and G, the next section of the new hospital to be constructed. Second--The equipment of the new laundry building was completed in July. The opening of this building for use has enabled us to reorganize and centralize the entire laundry service of the hospital, as well as that of the School for Midwives and the Training School for Nurses. Third--The grounds have been graded and laid out in lawns, and trees have been planted on the adjoining streets. Throughout...
